Gypsy Cowboy

A E D A
The moon beamed down so lightly on distant fields of clover.
E D A
The gypsy cowboy wanders because he knows it's over.
E D A
And everything's so quiet. The town is down in slumber.
E D A
His cowboy lady mutters, let's roll another number.
D E
Oh, oh so sad
D A
The trouble that's in this old world, it makes me so sad.
D E
Oh, oh so sad
A
Mama cried.

LEAD BREAK (VERSE)

A E D A
And o'er the fields of clover, an angel band was singing.
E D A
With maidens throwing roses, and heaven's lights were screaming
E D A
Calling through the darkness, the voice of one man's brother
E D A
Spouting discontentment, of one way or the other
D E
Oh, oh so sad
D A
The trouble that's in this old world, it makes me so sad.
D E
Oh, oh so sad
A
Mama cried.
